

22473VIC CERTIFICATE II GENERAL EDUCATION FOR ADULTS

This qualification is delivered over one year under the auspices of Central Regional TAFE (RTO Code 32789)

What is Certificate II General Education for Adults all about?

The Certificate II in General Education for Adults assists you to develop your reading, writing, maths and employability skills to prepare you for a further study pathway. It is targeted at students that may have English as an Additional language or large gaps in their literacy and numeracy. Aspects of the course are project based and a large component of the course is the development of a portfolio to assist with future career planning and employment processes.

Career Pathways

The Certificate II in General Education for Adults is equivalent to Year 10 for the purposes of applying for a TAFE course and will meet the entry requirements for most Certificate II, III or IV level TAFE courses. It is also recognized by the Western Australia Police Force and Australian Defence Forces as a Year 10 equivalency.
